THE SOLDIERS RETURN .- The noble boys of the Vigo and Fort Harrison Ghards reached this city at 10:15 yesterday morning, and second to no Insurance Corporation in the were met at the depot by thousands of our Upion, for wealth, promptness and liberality citizens, who welcomed them with the most in adjusting and paving its losses. deafening cheers.

The companies were formed and marched to the Court House, where refreshments were provided for them. After they had fed themselves, they were marched to the corner | this notice. of Market and Wabash Streets, where Hon. W. E. McLean welcomed them in an eloquent and patriotic speech, commending their bravery and patriotism, and extending to them the gratitude and most cordial wel come of our citizens.

The boys look fine, and are in excellent spirits. A very large proportion of them will re-enlist and see the thing through.

THE ELEVENTH AT INDIANAPOLIS .- The reception of the Zouazes at Indianapolis was a grand affair. They were fairly feasted and toasted. The welcoming speech was deliv ered by Benj. Harrison, Esq'r., and was eloquent, commendatory and patriotic. Dr. Fry. Sirgeon attached to the regiment responded. He said they had left one of their number. in an honorable grave, far from home. He had been murdered in cold blood, they had reason to believe, and as they marched with DENTIST reversed arms to his last resting place, many were the tears dropped and sad were the feelings at the fate of poor Hollenback. Most of the regiment would return to the scene of action, and they would carry again, without dishonor, the flags they had returned home with. The 11th was the only regiment, he said, in Patterson's command that offered to stay with him for ten days, or for any length of time after the expiration of their term of service. They had made the offer without solicitation, and received the thanks of the General for their sacrificing patriotism. Referring to the skirmish at Kelley's Island, he said Corporal Hays and his little band of twelve skirmishers caused thirty-three of the famous Black Horse Cavalry to sleep in traftors' graves. No braver or better men ever lived than the Zonaves who did such AT NO. 12 MECHANIC'S ROW.

At the conclusion of his remarks, three rousing cheers and a tiger were given for Indiana and Indianapolis, when Gov. Morton mounted the stand and said the reception teadered the regiment showed how warm a place the Zouaves held in the hearts of their fellow-citizens. Indiana was proud of her volunteers. They had honored their State.

The 11th regiment had given Romney a place on the page of history, and Corporal Have and his little band were everywhere recognized as heroes. We were now but on the threshold of this dreadful war. The known bravery and experience of the 11th regiment, would be much in our favor if they should return to the field of action. It would give to our arms a prestige that would greatly strengthen them. Would not the Hills preserve its organization, adhere to its colors and make thoroselves a name in history !--Shall the experiment of a free government fail? Shall we cease to fight for the government? We were not fighting for the mere agents of the government, but for the government itself. Washington, Jefferson and Taylor had passed away, but the government they had administered remained. It becomes every man to cast aside his prejudices and assist the government in this its hour of trial and danger.

The 11th regiment had "Remembered Buens Vista." The imputed stain upon the honor of Indiana has been wiped out, and would be remembered no more forever.

In conclusion, the Governor gave the Zouaves a hearty welcome back to their homes. He said he would preserve their arms and equipments for them, as he would for the other regiments, and restore them in com-11 te onfer on their return to service.

Three hearty cheers were given the Governor, and loud calls followed for Dave Have his skirmishers.

1 Our city was gally decorated, vesterday, by flags, banners, &c., in honor of the returning Zonaves. The day was ushered in Home Guards turned out in full force to welcame the brave and gallant boys of the Fort Harrison and Vigo Guards. A neatly decorated car, bearing a number of young drummers, led the procession, while the artillery boomed forth its heavy thunder. But the welcome most appreciated was the warm clasp of the hands and the fervent kiss bestowed by loving friends. Neither company has lost a man. Four, however, out of the two companies, were le ; sick or wounded at Cumberland. The music by the German Brass Band and the young drummers, was the admiration of all.

Matchett, a trader probably as well-known as any man in Western Pennsylvania, states as foilows: "I met with a farmer in Armstrong county who was reduced by Dyspepsia to a mere skeleton. I persuaded him to by a bottle of Borbave's Holiand Bitters, believing it would cure him. Meeting him some months after, what was my astonishment at finding him a hale, hearty man; he told me he now weighed two hundred pounds, and that this wonderful change had been produced by Borbave's Holland Bitters to which he attributed solely his restoration."

REV. EDWARD A. WILSON.

Williamsburg. King County, N. Y. Quack Nosraums.-The majority of bair washes, hair dyes, hair tonics, hair oils, the numberless preparations which are now before the public under suce extravagant, hyperbolical and fantastic titles as we see paraded in show-window cards, and newspaper headings, as hair preparations, are all humbugs of the first water; their real merit, when they possess any, is, that they do no harm. Hog's lard, whole oil, lard oil, sweet oil, scented and celored, make up, when in beautiful wrappers, and white flint glash bottles, the coefficient character of tonics, and when thus costly, are baptised with some tri-syllable term and caught at by verdant young and old of both sexes. Such is not the character of Prof. Wood's Hair-Restorative. This gentleman comes before the world without any "high falutin" Xilophloferium, or ane ther astounding and startling catch-penny term; by simply advertises a Hair Restorative-what it expresses, precisely-and as a Restorative it acts. Buy Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, and as you value your scalp, aye, your very brains, apply nothing else; for it may be that you you will get some worse substance

Nood's Restorative for the hair is the best article ea-Brandreta's Pills. The use of these Pills ADD TO OUR VITALITY he enabling us to realet the ACTION OF DISEASE. The way in which a cure is effected may be interesting to professional men, yet it is not of any sort of consequence to a man or woman in scarch of health than perfumed lard oil on your cranium. Remember

THEY WANT TO KNOW WHAT MEDICINE CURES. NOT BOW IT COMES. COSTIVENESS AND DIZINESS CURED New-York, April 5, 1860. Da. B. BRANDETS-Dear Sir: In the spring of 1853 thad the the misfortune to break my thigh, in consequence of which my constituton became greatly de-ilitated, and suffered with great costiveness, attended with dizziness and severe pain in the head and oppoand oppression of the heart. I was attended by several physicians of this city for three years without obtaining relief, and had despaired of a cure till finally I was induced to try your Pills, which almost instantly relieved me, and in a short time completely restored my health. I consider them the best medieine in the world.
